

Overview:

Students will use GAFE to create a blog.

Grades: K-5

Subject: Technology

Students will have prior knowledge of google apps and how to access their accounts. Students will have prior knowledge of what a blog is and will have explored some blogs as directed by the teacher.

Using a projector and/or a smart board.

Demonstrate the process of creating a blog by doing it in front of the class via smartboard/projector. Have students go to a computer, log in and repeat the process as they follow along and do it with you.

Standards:

1st Grade Technology Standard 1: A student must use digital tools and resources for problem solving and decision making.

1st Grade Technology Standard 4: A student must possess a functional understanding of technology concepts and operations.

	1	2	3
	Student needs more than 50% assistance in creating a blog by following teacher directions.	Student needs 25-50% assistance in creating a blog by following teacher directions.	Student attends to lesson and is able to successfully complete creating a blog independently by following teacher directions

CREATE A BLOG by TRACY HARDY (thardy@mcpsmt.org) is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-Share Alike 3.0 United States License.